

IBM Security Access Manager for Enterprise Single Sign-On Administration Information

Length:	4.0 Days
Ref:	TW173G-X
Delivery method:	ClassroomInstructor Led Online
Price:	AUD

Overview

This course teaches IBM Security Access Manager for Enterprise Single Sign-on concepts and administration. Lecture topics include installation and configuration, administration, creating single sign-on profiles, reporting, and problem determination. The course also includes many hands-on exercises to supplement the lecture.

Public

This basic course is designed for new IBM Security Access Manager for Enterprise Single Sign-on administrators responsible for implementing and administering IBM Security Access Manager for Enterprise Single Sign-on.

Prerequisites

You should have:

- Basic Windows administration skills.
- Basic WebSphere Application Server administration skills

Objective

- Describe the components of IBM Security Access Manager for Enterprise Single Sign-On
- Install and configure the IBM Security Access Manager for Enterprise Single Sign-On server
- Manage ISAM ESSO users and roles
- Configure and apply system, user, and machine policies
- Deploy the AccessAgent component for desktop single sign-on
- Use AccessStudio to create standard and advanced single sign-on profiles
- View reports and audit information

Topics

- Introduction

- IMS server
- Users, Roles, and Policies
- AccessAgent
- Administration
- Shared workstations
- Basic AccessStudio
- Advanced AccessStudio
- Auditing and reporting
- Advanced topics