

□

IBM i2 COPLINK Detect
Information

Length: 2.0 Days
__Ref: 9T211G-X
Delivery method: Classroom
Price: EUR

Overview

This course is for those whose job includes responsibility for criminal investigation including field officers, detectives/investigators, analysis and supervisors

You work with both a fully functioning COPLINK anonymoized data base to practice the skills required for using the Detect program and your client agency's live data to; search existing data bases, develop tactical lead generation for fighting crime, detect relationships among people, places and things and share information with other agencies.

Public

This basic course is for Patrol officers, deputies, detectives, investigators, analysis and supervisors of these positions.

Prerequisites

There are no prerequisites for this course.

Objective

- Acquire the knowledge and skills necessary to operate COPLINK search and association tools to access data housed in various RMS systems

Topics

- Log into the system
- Navigate the user interface
- How to input information
- How to construct a basic search
- How to construct a refined search
- How to filter returns
- How to follow up on search results

