

□

IBM Security Directory Server Fundamentals Information

Length:	4.0 Days
Ref:	TW084G-X
Delivery method:	ClassroomInstructor Led Online
Price:	EUR

Overview

IBM Security Directory Server is a powerful enterprise directory for corporate intranets and the Internet. IBM Security Directory Server is built to serve as the identity data foundation for rapid development and deployment of Web applications, security, and identity management initiatives. It includes strong management, replication, and security features.

Public

This basic course teaches the topics, concepts, and functions to educate a person that is taking the position of an IBM Security Directory Server (LDAP) Administrator.

Prerequisites

There are no pre-requisites for this course.

Objective

- Define LDAP and discuss concepts regarding LDAP standards
- Manage directory entries and search the directory; explain the purpose of the directory schema
- Define the security features of IBM Security Directory Server
- Define the replication features of IBM Security Directory Server
- Define the performance features of IBM Security Directory Server
- Define problem determination facilities

Topics

- Introduction
- Concepts and managing directory data
- Security
- Distributed directories
- Performance
- Problem determination

